This system does NOT require you to spend countless hours in front of the TV or a computer waiting for the result of one race before rushing to get on the next with only minutes or seconds between the two.

•

You need NO extraordinary skill or previous experience of horse racing, placing bets or picking winners. Whilst this isn't about dumb luck, the horse you pick is almost irrelevant!

•

Forget the next big gamble, odds on favorites or using a daily newspaper you don't read or have time to collect.

•
